Norman D. Mehrhoff, 60, of Bland, passed away Thursday, May 1, 2014, near Belle from injuries sustained in an automobile accident.

Norman was born on November 13, 1953, in Belle, a son to the late Lawrence Norman and Della Ruth (Brown) Mehrhoff.

On August 25, 1973, at Crossroads Baptist Church near Bland, Norman was united in marriage to his soul mate for over 40 years, Debra Sue (Jones) Mehrhoff who survives at their home.

Norman graduated in 1971 from Bland High School. He was employed for 41 years at Kingsford Manufacturing Company near Belle. He was a lifelong member of Crossroads Baptist Church near Bland, where he faithfully served as a deacon and helped with the youth program.

He enjoyed cutting wood, fishing, eating, camping, mowing the yard, and putting up so many Christmas lights on the outside of his house that it was as bright as the airport.

Norman was a man that would do anything for anyone that needed help. He never knew a stranger and had a heart of gold. He was the major caregiver for his wife Debra and her parents. Norman lovingly cared for them and was not afraid to help them in any way he could.'

He enjoyed spending time with his family, he especially loved his grandchildren who were the sparkle in his eyes. He had a strong love for his family and the church family. Norman will be missed and remembered by all who knew and loved him.

In addition to his wife of over 40 years, Norman is survived by two sons, Jason Mehrhoff and his wife Wendy of Rosebud and Ryan Mehrhoff and his wife Nickie of Owensville of Owensville, four grandchildren, Blake, Daxton, Carlee and Molly Mehrhoff; a sister, Beverly Loughridge and her husband Bob of Belle; his mother-in-law, Zella Jones of Owensville; and an uncle Earl Brown and his wife Edna Mae of Bland, along with many nieces, nephews, cousins, extended family members and a host of friends.

In addition to his parents Norman was preceded in death by his father-in-law, Ronald Jones.
