Obituaries

Jerry L. Ridenhour

Jerry L. "Hickory" Ridenhour died Wednesday, Jan. 12, at his home in Illinois at the age of 59.

Hickory was born on May 31, 1940, in Belle, the son of the late Roscoe and Helen Huff Ridenhour. On Sept. 7, 1957, Hickory married Mary G. Litton in Belle.

Hickory was a meatcutter for forty years spending the last seventeen years at Vogt's IGA in Columbia, IL. He was a member of the Meatcutter's Union 534 and Local #88. He was also a faithful member of the Pentecostal Church in Rosewood Heights, IL.

Surviving Hickory is his wife, Mary; three sons; Robb with his wife Kathy of Rosewood Heights, IL; Rick with his wife Crystal, and Randy with his wife Shari, from Wood River, IL. Also two brothers, Robert with his wife Jo of Pacific and Ronald with his wife Barb of Kirkwood, two sisters Jean Adkins with her husband Gene, of Belle, and Donna Christmann with her husband Roger of Wood River, IL; eight grandchildren; Angie, Michael, Ranada, Ashley, Tayler; Haley, Zachary and Jacob and one great grandchild Dylan.

Services were held on Sunday, Jan. 16, at the First Baptist Church in Belle with the Reverends Royce Roy and Phil Rector co-officiating. Interment was in the Liberty Cemetery.

Arrangements were under the direction of Sassmann's Funeral Service in Belle.
